Aim:

To ensure that Educators provide enough notice to the service of them ending care, and that they do so in a professional manner.

Explanation:

When an Educator gives notice for them ending care with CCEL, a minimum of 4 weeks notice is required. Providing CCEL with as much notice as possible will ensure that the children's best interests are taken into account, and enable the service to provide alternate care arrangements for the children and families.

Responsibilities:

In relation to Co-ordination Unit Staff:

- Be aware of the requirements of the current Education and Care Services National Regulations and current National Quality Standard
- Be aware of the Child Care Compliance Obligations as set out by Department of Education and Training
- Ensure that Educators giving their notice to end care with the service do so in writing and have given a minimum of 4 weeks notice
- Notify parents of the Educators decision to end their care with the service, ensuring that they are also given a minimum of 4 weeks notice
- Work with Educators to assist families in obtaining alternate care arrangements within the service
- Ensure priority of allocation is given to children moving to new care arrangements
- CCEL will determine the notice period required for children moving to alternate care arrangements within the service. This means that if a family is able to find alternate care with another Educator within CCEL prior to the end of the Educators notice period they will be able to move their child's care arrangements as soon as is practicable and without any penalty
- Arrange for all documentation relating to the children and families enrolled with the Educator to be collected and archived at the service
- Arrange for the collection of any CCEL Resources to be returned to the Resource Library
