

Code of Conduct Statement

We are committed to creating and maintaining an environment that promotes the safety of children. This includes encouraging a culture where the prevention and reporting of abuse is supported and encouraged. All staff and volunteers are responsible for promoting the safety, wellbeing and the empowerment of children.

- Country Children's Early Learning is committed to a code of professional conduct, upholding ethical principles and professional standards that guide decision making and practice at the service
- This Code of Conduct sets expectations for how educators in our service should behave around children. This is important to help prevent children from being harmed. Child abuse takes many forms and can include physical, sexual and psychological abuse, ill-treatment and neglect
- This Code of Conduct identifies positive child safe behaviours that we encourage all educators to support. It also identifies behaviours that we consider unacceptable. Engaging in unacceptable behaviour is a breach of this Code of Conduct and may result in managerial or disciplinary action
- Country Children's Early Learning will uphold the highest standards in ethical conduct in accordance with the ECA Code of Ethics, The United Nations Rights on the Convention of the Child, the Child Safe Standards and the Services Philosophy and Policies
- Country Children's Early Learning uses this code as a basis for evaluating professional conduct, and as a reference tool for the thought processes that inform pedagogy, including actions and reactions towards professional conduct, relationships, views, influence and position within communities and society
- Ethical conduct guides the behaviour and decisions within the service and is underpinned by respect for, and the valuing of children, families, educators and staff and the extended service community

I Will:

- At all times act with integrity, leadership, respect, selflessness, objectivity, accountability, openness and honesty
- Treat all children, young people, colleagues and families with respect
- Listen to and value children, young people, colleagues and families' ideas and opinions
- Respect each child's right to privacy
- Provide a welcoming, inclusive and safe environment for all people associated with the service
- Actively promote cultural safety and inclusion
- Listen to children and respond to them appropriately

I understand the following types of behaviour may be of concern:

- Being alone with a child when there is no professional reason for doing so
- Showing favour to one child over others
- Babysitting, mentoring and/or tutoring a child out of work hours (without approval from management for this kind of secondary employment)

All staff, educators, volunteers, families and community members are encouraged to speak up if they have concerns about the safety of children. Complaints about a breach of this Code of Conduct must be reported to your Service Coordinator or the service Head of Entity, Julia Morphett.

Some breaches of the Code of Conduct may need to be reported to the Regulatory Authority and the Office of the Children's Guardian.

Staff, Educators and volunteers who breach our Code of Conduct may also be subject to disciplinary action. This can include increased supervision, appointment to an alternate role, suspension or termination.

Please Note:

An adult in child related work in an organisation will commit an offence if they know another adult there poses a serious risk of abusing a child, and they have the power to reduce or remove the risk and they negligently fail to do so.

All Educators are Mandated Reporters and are required to report information if they know, believe or reasonably ought to know that a child has been abused.
