Country Children's Early Learning has the responsibility to prevent, identify and promptly resolve problems whenever possible in the service. Every staff member, educator, child and parent/guardian has a responsibility to treat others in a way that will not cause distress.

Where a grievance does arise, it must be resolved in a fair, objective and timely manner with a minimum of conflict and disruption. It is important to ensure grievances are resolved by discussion and negotiation between the parties concerned. A mediating problem-solving approach should be adopted with efforts made to encourage constructive communication between the parties involved.
